IN RE DIRECTIVES TO YAHOO!, INC.
PURSUANT TO SECTION 105B OF THE
FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE
ACT (S)

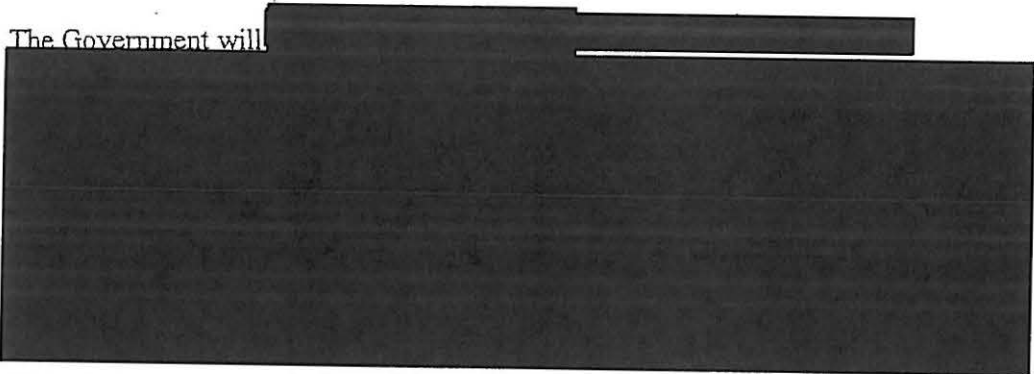

---

Docket Number 105B(g): 07-01

ORDER

The Government's directives to Yahoo!, Inc. (hereafter, "Yahoo") state:

The Government will

Yahoo's Memorandum in Opposition to Motion to Compel states that "[t]he Directives encompass surveillance of U.S. citizens in two ways: (a) surveillance that targets U.S. citizens who are temporarily abroad; and (b) surveillance that captures communications of U.S. citizens at home who are communicating with the target of the surveillance. Under those two situations, the surveillance authorized by the Directive invades the reasonable expectation of privacy of U.S. citizens and must, therefore, comply with the Fourth Amendment." Memorandum, at 7 (emphasis added, footnote and citations omitted).

As an aid to the Court in resolving the Motion to Compel,
