Digital Democracy:
The Threat and Promise of Technology for Our Democratic Institutions
Friday, January 25th, 2019

8:30 a.m   Registration and Breakfast

9:30 a.m.   Introduction: Dean Risa Goluboff (UVA Law)

10:00 a.m.   Trustbusting in the Internet Age

- Babette Boliek (Pepperdine School of Law)
- Rafi Martina (Sen. Mark Warner's Office)
- Merritt Baer (Amazon Web Services)
- Chris Riley (Mozilla)

Moderator: Professor Thomas Nachbar (UVA Law)

11:30 a.m.   Keynote Address

- Introduction: Vice Dean Leslie Kendrick (UVA Law)
- Jack Balkin (Yale Law School)

12:30 p.m.   Lunch

1:00 p.m   Author Panel

- Adam Gershowitz (William & Mary School of Law)
- Sarah Haan (Washington and Lee School of Law)
- Katelyn Ringrose (Notre Dame School of Law)
- Jacob Rush '20

Moderators: Michael Weisbuch '19, Jacob Ruby '19

2:30 p.m   Does Big Brother See Color?

- Andrew Selbst (Visiting Fellow at the Yale Information Society Project)
- Margaret Hu (Washington and Lee School of Law)
- Jeramie Scott (EPIC)

- Brandi Collins (Color of Change)
- Natasha Duarte (Center for Democracy & Technology)

Moderator: Jay Stanley (UCLA)

4:00 p.m. Information-Industrial Complex

- Joel Todoroff (Central Intelligence Agency)
- Ben Wittes (Lawfare)
- Peter Swire (Georgia Tech)
- Matt Olsen (Uber)

Moderator: Ellen Nakashima (The Washington Post)

5:15 p.m. Closing Remarks

5:30 p.m. Reception